FR. NICK'S MESSAGE

Faith Without Works Is Dead

Dear Parishioners,

As the fall embraces our part of the world, we begin to return to familiar patterns and schedules. Among them is our return to Church, coming to the Liturgy, to worship and to again deepen and fortify our faith. We all acknowledge the importance of faith yet our world often weakens our resolve to "stay the course" and the obvious "works of faith" that should accompany our daily journey. Many of us believe that we do have faith and that in the end, this will be enough for our salvation. We should be reminded of St. James' response "even the demons believe and shudder. Faith without works is dead." James 2:17-19

I share with you these few lines from a great father and teacher, St. Maximus the Confessor, on this theme of faith and works:

"How can we speak of having faith in God and believing what he promises about the future when we do not even believe what he teaches us about the present, about our existence in time?"

We have been ensnared by earthly things and we live absorbed in the flesh which makes war on the spirit.

True faith in Christ is what they had who welcomed the whole of it into their lives by means of the practical fulfillment of the commandments, saying in effect: ' I live, yes, but it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me.' (Gal. 2:20)

In essence, our faith is depended and strengthened by our actions and our daily "good" works. It is the "litmus test" whether we belong to Christ or not. Our Church, our St. Demetrios family, offers us the opportunity to worship God and express and experience our Orthodox faith. Also, through its many ministries, the Church encourages us to participate through faithful "work" that touch people's lives and move us to Christian action.

Let us cultivate our faith by incorporating works that are pleasing to God and that confirm Christ's love for each of us. Let us collectively offer our time, talent and treasure to assist one another in living out our lives in faith and by our actions say "... it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me ..." (Gal. 2:20)

*With Love in the Lord,
Fr. Nick*

ST. DEMETRIOS THE GREAT MARTYR: TRULY GREAT

St. Demetrios is, of course, the patron saint of our Church. Throughout the year we gather together as a Church family and, encouraged by his inspirational story, we strive to live as he did: a Christ-centered life.

Only a small number of saints are called “Great” in our Orthodox Church. Even fewer are known as “Great Martyrs.” St. Demetrios is one of these few given this honor and distinction by the Church. While many know about his life, to draw closer to him and what he means to us all, it is important to relive and remember his life.

St. Demetrios died for his faith during the violent persecutions of the Emperor Diocetian, in the year 306. Demetrios was a soldier in the Roman Army, and he was also a skilled orator and leader. More important, he was a Christian in a time when those who believed in Christ were hounded by pagan rulers and killed for their faith. Demetrios was named to a governmental position as consul of Thessalonika, but instead of persecuting the Christians there, he preached to them and guided them.

It wasn't long before the emperor heard of strong faith and commitment to ministry, and he ordered him arrested and imprisoned. While there, he urged a young Christian named Nestor to engage in combat with a famous gladiator, who had murdered many a believer in the amphitheater over the years. This time, the gladiator was overwhelmed by the much smaller Nestor, who prayed with St. Demetrios who called upon God for strength in battle.

Humiliated over Nestor's spiritual and physical victory, the emperor soon after ordered Nestor and Demetrios executed.

A church was built over the remains of St. Demetrios at Thessalonika and devotion to him spread far and wide. This early church was destroyed by fire in the 7th century and was replaced by another edifice, adorned with Byzantine-style mosaics.

Icons of St. Demetrios depict the saint in a number of ways: often as a young soldier with a lance and shield; a victorious soldier upon a horse; as a deacon; and other times as a protector of children. He is profoundly revered in Europe and his feastday is commemorated with great festivity in Thessalonika.

As his feast approaches on Oct. 26, we pray that the faithful of our parish are inspired by his holy life—his strong faith, compassion, courage and fortitude. A blessed feast to our entire St. Demetrios family!

PRAYING THE BIBLE

“Orthodox Christians are not merely to read the Bible; we are also to pray the Bible. . . . The prayers of the Liturgy are full of biblical imagery and shot through with hundreds of biblical quotes.

In fact, the late French Orthodox theologian, Paul Evdokimov (1902 – 1970), once calculated that there are 98 quotations from the Old Testament and 114 quotations from the New Testament woven into the prayers of the Liturgy. The language of the Liturgy is the language of the Bible! To come to the Liturgy attentively is to learn to pray the Bible!” —Krantz, Guide to the Divine Liturgy, pgs. 81 - 82

AUTUMN

“Autumn, the year's last, loveliest smile.” —William Cullen Bryant

“Autumn is a second spring when every leaf is a flower.” —Albert Camus

“Every leaf speaks bliss to me, fluttering from the autumn tree.” —Emily Bronte

“I cannot endure to waste anything as precious as autumn sunshine by staying in the house.” —Nathaniel Hawthorne

BUILDING ON OUR FAITH

Welcome back St. Demetrios parishioners! Although we saw one another from time to time over the summer, seeing the huge turnout in our new temporary worship space on the first day of Church was so heartwarming.

Even though the Building Committee was reasonably certain the parish would feel comfortable in the “new” Sanctuary space that will accommodate us for the next year and a half, we were not ready for the number of outright compliments on a “job well done.”

You will also notice the new function room that occupies the area formerly used for storage and miscellaneous offices. The parish’s ability to gather for coffee, functions and other activities is essential to our community’s way of life. New church administrative offices have been built on the second floor and a full access ramp has been built to provide access to all from the parking lot.

In order to accomplish all these tasks, public hearings have been scheduled and votes successfully obtained, building permits have been negotiated and are in hand. We are happy to report that construction financing has been negotiated and closed.

We want to take this opportunity to express the gratitude of the building committee to all those that came to help us in the actual move to the new worship space. Thanks to everyone’s help, the savings were significant, but the renewal of spirit was even more important. Each volunteer understood the importance of TIMING!

Because in only one week we had to move our sacred place of worship, we had to make certain that the seasonal activities of the church were completed and in summer schedule. This meant that the move would have to be in a very short calendar window. In an orderly and non-stop manner, the job was executed like clockwork. Again, THANK YOU volunteers.

With the old sanctuary then vacant, and with planning on the new building continuing, subcontractor bids for the demolition and preliminary site work showed some prices as below our budget. To take advantage of this advantageous pricing, and to spare the expense of making the old sanctuary secure, we proceeded with this phase of work.

Currently the subcontractor bids we have received are good, but some are over budget for some particular categories of work. The Building Committee has many alternative methods to bring those bids in line with the budget, but the focus now is in producing new subcontractor bids from new participants. The response will be available to us in the weeks to come. Stand by!

HALLOWEEN HANG-UP?

Trick-or-Treat, Halloween parties and other seasonal traditions can leave Orthodox Christian parents scratching their heads—what is appropriate for our family? What message am I sending? Is Halloween “ok” and harmless for my children to celebrate? This month, visit “Reflections,” our parish blog-space, and our Facebook page to access several articles addressing these questions and more: Halloween Hang-Up and Two Hermiones. We hope the discussion is helpful and that the creative solutions offered might be of service in your family's spiritual journey. Visit www.stdemetrios.org/blog.

FAMILY NIGHT NOV. 4

On Sept. 30, we reignited our Family Nights with a terrific visit from Eric Landry. He spoke to us about leadership, confidence and community, and his message was not lost on our children and parents. We thank him for his time! Looking forward to our next Family Night on Nov. 4, we will once again be helping with cards for the St. Nicholas Tree and learning about what it means to be in a constant state of “Thanksgiving” to God. HOPE, JOY, GOYA, parents and all parishioners are invited.

Please contact Gina Spencer with your meatless potluck offering: gina@pdillc.com.

Let's also support our friends at Chesterbrook by bringing snacks on the 4th: granola bars, crackers, Goldfish, pretzels, etc. Thanks!

OCF Seeks Donations for Thanksgiving Drive

We hope all our college students are having a strong first semester—and that they are making time for the Church in their lives.

One way we can stay connected to our faith, and all Christ has taught us, is through serving our neighbor. In this spirit, we are pleased to announce that for the 3rd year, our college students will lead us in the Thanksgiving for Veterans Drive, in coordination with the Middlesex Sheriff's Office.

Last year, our goal was 20 turkey dinners—our parish responded with 25! This year, we are upping our goal to 30, as the veterans we serve are in greater need than ever!

Our Wish List

- 30 turkeys, frozen or fresh
- 150 canned/non-perishable sides: cranberry sauce, squash, stuffing, etc.
- 30 frozen/fresh pies
- Monetary donations to purchase any of the above

To donate, help or learn more, please contact Fr. Alex or Stacey Kalivas (skalivas@bryant.edu).

Thanks to all for your support!

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

As of the middle of September, we have received 362 pledges totaling $343,606 of which $215,697 has been collected. In addition we have received $50,975 from 132 stewards who have not filled out a pledge card. Our average pledge continues to increase, currently up to $977 per family. While we still have a long way to go to reach our goal of over $510,000 in total pledges, it's good to see that stewards recognize the needs of our community and are continuing to support our parish. Additional details will be presented at our General Assembly meeting in October.

Our online contributions continue to grow as more stewards recognize the convenience of paying with this method. Whether you want to make a one time or recurring pledge, the online system allows for a secure and easy way to do this. See www.stdemetriosweston.org/stewardship for more information.

Our annual stewardship pledge drive will kick off this fall. Stay tuned for more information on this year's theme, "Abide in Me."

MEDIA, WITNESS AND OUTREACH

ADULT EDUCATION: ORTHODOX LIFE CONTINUES

"Through the Lens of the Liturgy: Being Human" kicked off last month, with presentations on the opening segments of the Divine Liturgy and how it speaks to our personhood. This month, we delve deeper into this profound service; our presentations will take us from the Trisagion ("Agios O Theos") all the way to the Lord's Prayer. Robert Krantz's Guide to the Divine Liturgy is our "guidebook" through this series and is available at the Bookstore on Sundays and at the office throughout the week. Cost is $10. Please join us for this unique series, which will inform our Liturgical life as well as our sense of who we are and what we are made for. Weekly readings in Krantz are outlined below. Please see your weekly bulletin and "e-blast" for each week's Faith Cue, and bring your book to the Divine Liturgy for reference.

Oct. 2: pgs. 50 – 67

Oct. 9: pgs. 68 – 91

Oct. 16: pgs. 92 – 98

Oct. 23: pgs. 99 – 113

Oct. 30: pgs. 114 – 129

We hope you will participate fully in "Being Human" and take steps to learn more about your faith, and all God has planned for you, over the coming weeks!

ST. METHODIOS FAITH & HERITAGE CENTER: AN OPPORTUNITY

As many of us have personally witnessed, our Metropolis has a remarkable resource at our retreat center in Contoocook, NH. In addition to being the site of our extensive camping program, it provides an opportunity for all of us to "get away" from the daily grind and reconnect with our God. The peaceful, wooded setting and retreat buildings are a wonderful venue for retreats, seminars, a family spiritual adventure or personal prayer and reflection. We encourage our ministry and program leaders, as well as our individual parishioners and families, to consider planning an event at our beautiful center. This is a place where we can finally hear ourselves think; this is a place where we can finally hear what God is saying. To learn more, visit www.boston.goarch.org/faith_heritage_center.html.

JEN BRODY: TANZANIA JOURNAL

This summer, our own Jen Brody journeyed to Tanzania for a unique and challenging service project. She has shared some lively, moving reflections with our parish, the first installment of which appears below. To read the rest of her journal, please check in on our "Reflections" blog over the next several weeks. It will be well worth your time!

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

As many of you know, I traveled to Tanzania this past summer to volunteer in a school for children with disabilities. I had always wanted to travel to Africa, and I knew that if I was going to go that I wanted to do a service trip. Arriving in Tanzania, by myself, I was filled with nervous excitement. What I experienced was beyond any of my expectations. I had stayed in a house, owned by Cross Cultural Solutions (the NGO I traveled through) which was located in Karanga, a village outside of Moshi, in the Kilimanjaro area (Yes, by the mountain—I even did a day hike! Amazing!). My school was about a 15 minute walk down a long, rocky, dirt path. Whenever a car would drive by, you would have to turn and look the other way or otherwise be engulfed by dust. But, even so I loved my walks to school. Greetings are of great value in Tanzanian Culture. Walking to work people would smile and say "Mambo!" Or "Habari Gani!" It's amazing to remember how those little smiles can mean the most....
